

Update 42: Manila, Philippines - Extends Partial COVID-19 Restrictions Until September 30, 2020 to Curb the Spread of Infections

- On August 31, Philippines extended partial restrictions in Metro Manila until September 30 to curb the spread of COVID-19 infections
- This comes after health ministry reported a 24-hour rise of 3,446 new cases and 38 fatalities, taking total tally to 220,819 cases with 3,558 deaths
- Earlier, Manila ended strict lockdown measures on August 19 to boost business activity as economy reported recession for the first time in 29 years in the second quarter
- Under renewed policy, public transportation in Manila will be suspended
- However, manufacturing and retail businesses will operate at under 50% capacity
- Strict stay at home orders will be re-imposed
- Dine-in services will be allowed to reopen
- People must wear masks in public and observe one-meter social distancing, while children, elderly and pregnant women are urged to stay at home
- Aside from the capital, Bulacan, Batangas, and the cities of Tacloban and Bacolod will be under partial lockdown for a month
- The rest of the country will be under a more relaxed lockdown
- Philippines is bracing for its worst economic downturn in three decades due to the pandemic
- British banking giant HSBC expects country's GDP to contract by 11.1% in Q3 and 9.4% in Q4
- It expects the domestic economy to contract by 9.6% this year
- Supply Wisdom is continuously monitoring the situation and will alert you to any relevant developments
