

Update 15: Oman - Plans to Reopen International Flights Starting October 1, 2020

- Oman is set to reopen to international flights starting October 1, 2020
- The country's Supreme Committee said it would restart international flights to and from the sultanate next month in accordance with health data for specific destinations
- No further details of the reopening have been released, but it's likely that Oman will categorize destinations based on the scale of the COVID-19 outbreak in each country
- Oman had closed its borders to visitors in March in a bid to prevent the spread of COVID-19
- Anyone entering Oman must quarantine for 14 days
- All foreign citizens arriving in the country must also have health insurance
- As of now, Oman reported 87,590 confirmed COVID-19 cases with 742 deaths (0.8% of total reported cases) and 82,973 recoveries (94.7% of total reported cases)
- Supply Wisdom is continuously monitoring the situation and will alert you to any relevant developments
- Please consult Ministry of Health (<https://www.moh.gov.om/en/home>) for the latest information on COVID-19 in Oman
