

Update 15: Zimbabwe - Plans to Resume Domestic and International Flights as Further Eases COVID-19 Regulations

- Zimbabwe authorities are planning to resume domestic flights starting September 10 and international flights from October 01, 2020
- Travellers will be required to have COVID-19 clearance certificates issued by a recognized facility within 48 hours from the date of departure
- The Zimbabwe government has also relaxed COVID-19 regulations on inbound human traffic
- Those who test negative 48 hours before their return are being allowed to self-quarantine at home
- Authorities will also allow those without certificates to go home if they test negative at quarantine centers
- Zimbabwe had suspended flights and shut the borders in March 2020 to curb the spread of the COVID-19
- So far, Zimbabwe has recorded 7,388 cases and 218 deaths (3% of total reported cases)
- Supply Wisdom is continuously monitoring the situation and will alert you to any relevant developments
