

Update 3: Costa Rica - Reports Highest Daily Increase of 310 COVID-19 Cases, Raising National Total to 4,621

- The Minister of Health, Daniel Salas, reported 310 new cases of the COVID-19 in the last 24 hours, the singled highest day recorded so far
- Since March 6, the day the first COVID-19 infection appeared, the country has registered 4,621 cases
- A total of 1,721 have already recovered
- The Health Ministry has indicated its models show the country's intensive-care capacity could reach saturation points if new cases remain elevated over several weeks
- The recent spike in cases corresponds with both an increase in testing and with a higher test-positivity rate
- The Health Ministry considers the Greater Metropolitan Area (GAM) as the country's current epicenter and believes there is community transmission in the region
- Supply Wisdom is continuously monitoring the situation and will alert you to any relevant developments
