

Update 1: Costco - Employees Tests Positive for COVID-19 - Sunnyvale, California (US)

- Nine employees at Costco in Sunnyvale have tested positive for COVID-19
- Santa Clara officials have a protocol in place where they require all businesses that have employees test positive
- The two immediate actions were to send any employee feeling ill home and those exposed to that worker
- For workers determined to have close contact, it was stated that they should be tested around 7 days after they last had contact with the COVID-19 case
- Also, 31 workers have tested positive for COVID-19 across four different Santa Clara County in recent weeks, prompting an investigation
- The largest cluster of cases was reported at the Sunnyvale store at 150 Lawrence Station Road, where 13 employees tested positive last week
