

Update 14: Havana, Cuba - Plans to Resume Commercial Flight Operations from November 15, 2020

- Cuba's Institute of Civil Aeronautics (ICA) announced that Havana airport will open to regular commercial flights effective from November 15, 2020
- The Cuban government said it was holding off on opening up Havana, until COVID-19 outbreak was sufficiently contained
- Sources said that authorities will test all international travelers for coronavirus on arrival, and will levy a sanitary tariff in order to cover the extra costs of new hygiene protocols
- It is to be noted that Cuba announced it does not require travelers to take COVID-19 test prior to traveling
- However, the tourism agencies have insisted visitors to monitor their own health before traveling after 11 of the 900 Russian tourists that arrived at Northern Beach tested positive upon arrival
- As of now, Cuba reported 7,429 confirmed COVID-19 cases with 130 deaths (1.75% of total reported cases) and 6,831 recoveries (91.95% of total reported cases)
- Supply Wisdom is continuously monitoring the situation and will alert you to any relevant developments
- Please consult Ministry of Public Health (<https://salud.msp.gob.cu/?lang=en>) for the latest information on COVID-19 in Cuba
