

Update 61: New South Wales, Australia - Government Imposes New Restrictions Amid Rise in COVID-19 Cases

- On January 02, 2021, the Australian state of New South Wales (NSW) made masks compulsory and imposed new restrictions as its COVID-19 cluster expanded by seven, while neighboring Victoria recorded ten new locally acquired COVID-19 cases
- Authorities banned dancing and singing at night clubs while restricting numbers at gym classes, weddings, funerals, and places of worship
- NSW, which has close to 200 active COVID-19 cases, will levy a A$200 (US$154) fine for not wearing a mask with the rule being enforced from Monday (January 04)
- Victoria, which now has 29 active cases, this week made masks mandatory across the state while limiting gatherings and shutting its border to NSW
- Authorities said genomic sequencing showed the Victoria outbreak was directly linked to the NSW cluster, vindicating the decision to shut borders
- South Australia state recorded another day of zero cases while Tasmania, which is COVID-19 free, banned visitors from parts of Victoria
- As of now, Australia reported 28,483 confirmed COVID-19 cases with 909 deaths (3.1% of total reported cases) and 25,778 recoveries (90.5% of total reported cases)
- Supply Wisdom is continuously monitoring the situation and will alert you to any relevant developments
- Please consult Australian Government Department of Health (<https://www.health.gov.au/>) for latest information on COVID-19 in Australia
