

Update 59: United Kingdom - Government Imposes Mandatory Hotel Quarantine from February 15, 2021; Reports Positive Cases of COVID-19 with New Mutations

- The United Kingdom (UK) confirmed that anyone arriving from a country on the UK's travel ban list would be required to quarantine in a government-approved facility for ten days
- The UK's Department of Health informed that government-managed quarantine facilities would come into effect on February 15, 2021
- The stricter measures are to stop the spread of new COVID-19 variants, which were first identified in Brazil and South Africa
- The UK has also identified its own variant of the virus
- UK's health authorities announced that they had detected, on the outskirts of Liverpool and in Bristol, 40 cases of COVID-19 with strains presenting the E484K mutation in the UK variant
- It is the same S protein E484K mutation in the UK variant as the other South African, Brazilian, and Japanese variants
- As of now, United Kingdom has reported 3,911,573 COVID-19 confirmed cases and 1,862,645 recoveries, ~47.6% of total reported cases with 111,264 related deaths, 2.84% of total reported cases
- On the other hand, when compared to the overall population of the country, confirmed COVID-19 cases and fatality rate stands at ~5.9% and 0.16%, respectively
- Supply Wisdom is continuously monitoring the situation and will alert you to any relevant developments
- Please consult Public Health England (<https://www.gov.uk/government/organisations/public-health-england>) for the latest information on COVID-19 in the United Kingdom
