

Update 19: South Africa - Extends National State of Disaster Until March 15, 2021 in Response to the COVID-19 Pandemic

- South African cabinet has announced the extension of the country's national state of disaster by one more month
- In its statement, the government said that the national state of disaster will now continue until March 15, 2021
- The country will mark one year since the national state of disaster was first implemented last year in March 2020, in response to the COVID-19 pandemic
- The national state of disaster will be gazetted and officially extended from February 15 to March 15, 2021, by Cooperative Governance and Traditional Affairs (Cogta) Minister, Nkosozana Dlamini-Zuma.
- These regulations are set out to stop the further spread of COVID-19 and minimize its effects
- Anyone found in violation may be fined or imprisoned
- As of now, the country has reported 1,484,900 confirmed COVID-19 cases with 47,382 deaths, 3.2% of total reported cases and 1,377,980 recoveries, 92.8% of total reported cases
- When compared to the overall population of the country, confirmed COVID-19 cases and fatality rate stands at 2.5% and 0.08%, respectively
- Supply Wisdom is continuously monitoring the situation and will alert you to any relevant developments
- Please consult South African National Department of Health (<http://www.health.gov.za>) for latest information on COVID-19 in South Africa
