

Update 46: Germany - Plans to Extend COVID-19 Lockdown Until March 28, 2021

- According to a draft document to be discussed by Chancellor Angela Merkel and federal state leaders, Germany plans to extend its COVID-19 lockdown until March 28, 2021, while easing some restrictions from next week
- Angela Merkel is due to discuss lockdown and easing options with the 16 state heads on March 03, 2021, as COVID-19 cases in Germany hit more than 2.4 million and public frustration mounts over restrictive measures and a sluggish vaccine roll-out
- The draft document, states that starting from March 08, 2021, a maximum of five people from two households, excluding children younger than 14, will be allowed to meet, up from a maximum of two people under current rules
- Flower and book stores, garden centers, tattoo and nail parlours as well as massage salons will also be allowed to reopen
- Angela Merkel and state leaders will have to decide at which 7-day incidence rate per 100,000 residents measures could be either toughened or eased
- The document cited 35 and 50 as two likely possibilities
- With Easter approaching, the draft agreement also appeals to Germans to avoid domestic and foreign travel, adding, however, that limited visits to relatives will be allowed over the festive days
- As of now, Germany has reported 2,462,061 confirmed COVID-19 cases with 71,325 deaths, 2.90% of the total reported cases and 2,274,400 recoveries, 92.38% of the total reported cases
- When compared to the overall population of the country, confirmed COVID-19 cases and fatality rate stands at 2.93% and 0.08%, respectively
- Supply Wisdom is continuously monitoring the situation and will alert you to any relevant developments
- Please consult the Ministry of Health of Germany (<https://www.bundesgesundheitsministerium.de/english-version.html>) for the latest information on COVID-19 in Germany
