Update 56: Germany - Requires Compulsory Negative COVID-19 Test Requirement for All Incoming Air Travelers Until May 12, 2021

- The German Federal Ministry of Health implemented negative COVID-19 test result requirement prior to boarding
- The new measures will be applicable to all regardless of which risk area they are traveling from
- The test result should not be older than 48 hours
- The requirements will apply to all air travelers only and other forms of transport will be affected as well for travelers entering from high-risk areas
- However, crews, crew members, and children under the age of six are exempted from the new rules
- The Ministry stated that no one is forced to undergo a COVID-19 test but the airline companies are allowed only to carry passengers that present a negative test result
- The new regulations will be effective starting March 30, 2021 until May 12, 2021
- As of now, Germany has reported 2,830,335 confirmed COVID-19 cases with 77,039 deaths, 2.7% of total reported cases, and 2,535,000 recoveries, 89.6% of total reported cases
- When compared to the overall population of the country, confirmed COVID-19 cases and fatality rate stands at 3.5% and 0.1%, respectively
- In total, 577,923,364 vaccine doses have been given and 126,779,833 people, 1.6% of total population have been fully vaccinated against COVID-19
- Supply Wisdom is continuously monitoring the situation and will alert you to any relevant developments
- Please consult Ministry of Health of Germany (https://www.bundesgesundheitsministerium.de/english-version.html) for the latest information on COVID-19 in Germany
