

Update1: Peru - Extends Suspension of Flights from Brazil, United Kingdom and South Africa to Curb the Spread of COVID-19

- Peru will stop commercial flights with Brazil, the United Kingdom and South Africa at least until mid-May 2021
- This measure was put in place after the government extended the suspension for another two weeks in an effort to stem the spread of COVID-19
- It was placed by the Ministry of Transport and Communications (MTC) through a ministerial decision
- The standard extends from May 1 to 15, 2021, to suspend passenger flights from the three countries where outbreaks of new variants of the COVID-19 have been recorded, as a preventive measure to reduce the risk of infection
- Commercial flights with the United Kingdom have been suspended for nearly a year, having been in operation for only a week since the government issued its first mandatory national quarantine on March 15, 2020
- After a short opening, in December 2021, the Peruvian government again suspended its contacts with Europe, when the expansion of the British variant of the COVID-19 was confirmed
- Peru currently has open borders with some European countries, including Spain (Madrid and Barcelona), the Netherlands (Amsterdam) and France (Paris)
- However, it remains closed to travellers from the United Kingdom
- To enter the territory of Peru, health authorities require a negative PCR (Polymerase Chain Reaction) for COVID-19
- The test has to be performed 72 hours in advance, as well as a medical certificate and permanent use of a mask and face shield is required throughout the flight
- Reported COVID-19 stats for Peru:
 1. Confirmed Cases 1,818,689
 2. Deaths: 62,674 (3.4%)
 3. Recoveries: 1,688,091 (92.8%)
 4. Vaccine Doses Administered: 1,430,411
 5. Fully Vaccinated: 447,000 (2%)
- Supply Wisdom will continue to monitor and issue alerts for any relevant developments
