

Update 69: United Kingdom - Government Plans to Ease International Travel Restrictions for Green List Countries Except Spain and Greece

- People from UK will be able to fly to Gibraltar and Malta but not to Spain and Greece under UK's green light scheme
- The two Mediterranean regions are set to be included on the green list for quarantine-free travel after May 17 due to be announced on May 07, 2021
- The green status for those places would mean that people can visit there with just two COVID-19 tests on their return
- Spain and Greece will likely have to wait until a review in June 2021
- The two countries are likely to be on the "amber list"
- People can visit but will have to quarantine for 10 days when they return to the UK
- Most top destinations including France will be given the green travel go-ahead
- UK is set to announce the green list for countries that people can travel
- Reported COVID-19 stats for UK:
  1. Confirmed Cases: 127,543
  2. Deaths: 127,543 (2.88%)
  3. Recoveries: 4,234,772 (95.72%)
  4. Vaccine Doses Administered: 48,138,009
  5. Fully Vaccinated: 21% of the population
- Supply Wisdom is continuously monitoring the situation and will alert you to any relevant developments
